Financial Responsibility

By proceeding with the online registration process, you are agreeing to payment of Point Park University’s tuition, fees, room, board and other charges on your student account by the due date, regardless of your expected reliance on third-party resources, including but not limited to financial aid, employer reimbursement, outside scholarships, government assistance or other external resources.

By completing this registration “under seal” you understand that collection activities may continue for up to 20 years.

Late Fees/Business (Student Accounts) Hold

By proceeding with the online registration process, you also understand that failure to make payment in full or payment arrangements accepted by the University and in accordance with University policy by the date it is due, your account will be considered past due and late payment fees will be assessed on a monthly basis until the balance is satisfied. Current late payment fees incur at a monthly rate of $75.00. Your student account balance can be obtained by reviewing your student account statement which is available online through PointWeb.

In addition, if you fail to satisfy your balance, you understand that Point Park University will place a Business (Student Accounts) Hold on your student account. This Hold will prevent you from registering for future classes, receiving your transcripts and/or your diploma.

Collection Costs and Credit Reporting

By proceeding with the online registration process, you also understand that should your account become past due, it would be considered an educational loan. Point Park University reserves the right to place your student account with a third party collection agency or an attorney. If this collection process were to commence, you will be responsible for all costs for collections, including legal fees, not to exceed 50% of the entire past due balance. Costs for collection are in addition to the past due balance.

In addition, you understand that once placed with a collection agency, your debt will be reported to the appropriate consumer reporting agencies or other agencies in accordance with the Fair Credit Reporting Act 11 U.S.C. 1681.

Collection Communications

By proceeding with the online registration process, you authorize Point Park University and its respective agents and contractors to contact you regarding your debt at any current or any future number that you provide for your cellular phone or other wireless device. You further authorize Point Park University and its respective agents or contractors to utilize automated dialing equipment or artificial or pre-recorded voice or text messages when contacting you. You also authorize Point Park University and its respective agents and contractors to contact you through current or future e-mail addresses you provide.

Withdrawal Policy

By proceeding with the registration process, you understand that not attending classes does not constitute a withdrawal. You are required to officially drop or withdraw from your classes during the determined tuition refund periods to be eligible for a refund of all or a portion of tuition and fees. You should review your account balance status and any potential remaining charges with the Office of Student Accounts prior to finalizing any withdrawal.

Changes to Financial Registration Terms and Conditions

Point Park University reserves the right to change the financial registration terms and conditions at any time; therefore, you should periodically review the terms and conditions online through PointWeb.

By clicking Ok you are accepting the financial registration terms and conditions as outlined above.
