Point Park Men vs. Carlow
Feb. 18, 2015 · 7:30 p.m. · CCAC-South Gym · West Mifflin, Pa.

Point Park welcomes local opponent Carlow for a KIAC game at CCAC-South. It is the second-ever meeting between the teams as Carlow is in its first year of men’s basketball in school history. Point Park won at Carlow, 88-73, in the inaugural game between the nearby schools on Feb. 3.

Point Park has a chance tonight to clinch second place in the KIAC North Division and guarantee a home playoff game in the first round of the KIAC Tournament Feb. 24. The Pioneers need one win in their final two games to clinch second place. After tonight, Point Park hosts No. 21 IU East for its Senior Day. But the Pioneers would like to wrap up home court for the first round tonight.

Carlow is 2-20 and 0-11 KIAC in its first year, the Celts are currently out of playoff contention being 3.0 games back of fourth-place IU Kokomo with two games to play. But Carlow can play spoiler tonight versus Point Park and Saturday at home to Rio Grande.

PODIUMS GAME NOTES

Quick Hits: Point Park returns home for its final two games beginning tonight. The Pioneers are 7-3 at home compared to 4-8 on the road. Point Park would like to clinch home court for the first round of the KIAC Tournament, and they can do so with one more win, either tonight versus Carlow or Saturday on Senior Day. Versus No. 21 IU East (12 p.m.). A high-scoring duo in the KIAC to date, Heter and Barry Smith (7.8 rpg) leads the KIAC with 3.7 offensive rebounds per game, and Alan Heter (7.8 ppg) is fourth in the conference with 3.5 offensive caroms per game.

Offensive Rebounds: A big part of the Pioneers’ offensive is offensive rebounds, and they have the best duo in the KIAC on the offensive glass. Barry Smith (9.2 rpg) leads the KIAC with 3.7 offensive rebounds per game, and Alan Heter (7.8 ppg) is fourth in the conference with 3.5 offensive caroms per game.

NAIA DII Team Ranks: Point Park ranks 6th in NAIA DII in scoring at 87.6 ppg, 10th in 3FG made per game (8.9), 12th in steals per game (9.2), 12th in rebounds per game (40.2), 17th in offensive rebounds per game (13.1) and 17th in TO margin (+3.1).

This ‘That: Point Park is 2-5 in KIAC road games, which includes a 1-5 in conference games outside of Pittsburgh. One of the KIAC wins was at Carlow…At 13-11 overall, Point Park has already eclipsed last year’s win total when it was 11-17…Point Park has led the country in points per game for the last nine years…Point Park’s season-opening win over Great Lakes Christian, 143-70, set a program record for points in a game.

Playoff Picture: Point Park is currently in second place in the KIAC North, a position that would host the third-place team in the KIAC South in the first round of the playoffs Feb. 24. The winner there would play the winner of the game pitting the first-place team in the KIAC South versus the fourth-place team in the KIAC North in the semifinals Feb. 28 with the higher seed hosting. The KIAC Tournament finals are March 3 at the highest remaining seed. The regular season result will determine home court is equal seeds meet.

Last Time vs. Carlow: Point Park trailed early but led Carlow, 42-29, at the half on Feb. 3. The Pioneers reigned 11 treys as Jerahme Williams had 24 points, 9 assists and 4 treys. Sa’iid Allen added 15 points and 4 treys as Point Park went on to win, 88-73.
