PIONEER ATHLETIC HALL OF FAME – Brief summary of past inductees

Please note: full bios are available at www.pointpark.edu/athletics/HallofFame

Class of 2000
Jerry Conboy
Men’s basketball coach and A.D. from 1969-89, retired with a then-school record 305 victories.

Bobby Franklin
Three-time men’s basketball All-American scored a school-record 2,020 career points from 1973-77.

Frank Gustine
Point Park’s baseball coach for the first seven years, took Pioneers to 1974 NAIA World Series.

Dorethia Jackson
Ranks second all-time on women’s basketball scoring list with 1,852 points from 1990-94.

Bill Jerich
Career .406 hitter on the baseball team from 1985-88 was an NAIA second-team All-American.

Jim Masserio
Point Park’s first All-American in any sport, finished third at the 1969 NAIA men’s golf tourney.

John Stuper
Star pitcher led the Pioneers to the 1978 NAIA World Series, won 38 games in MLB from 1982-85.

Class of 2001
Darlene Brusco
Women’s basketball forward had 1,401 points (18.2 avg.) and 882 rebounds (11.4 avg.) from 1983-86.

Brian Tomasic
Four-year point guard from 1990-95 had 467 career assists and was Academic All-American.

Kenny Walls
Men’s basketball All-American from 1992-95 ranks second in points (1,997) and rebounds (1,205).

Class of 2002
Larry Anderson
Played men’s basketball from 1969-73, later was assistant coach and assistant dean of students.

Dave Duncan
All-American baseball catcher played in two NAIA World Series, member of board of directors.

Jim Ney
Only Point Park athlete to be All-American in two sports – baseball and basketball from 1972-75.

Barry Hanburger
Former athletic director coached baseball, cross country and golf at various times in the 1970s.

Class of 2003
Lou Abel
All-American baseball player hit .451 in 1974 to lead Pioneers to first-ever NAIA World Series.

Ed Haberle
Career .373 hitter from 1976-79 helped Pioneers to two World Series, including 3rd place in ’79.

Dan Moriarty
The 1969 NAIA District 18 cross country champ is arguably Point Park’s finest runner ever.

Melvin Paul
Point Park’s all-time leading rebounder with 1,028 boards also scored 1,605 points from 1976-80.

Harry Westwood
Sluggers hit .352 with 23 home runs from 1972-75, led the baseball team to the World Series in ’74.

Class of 2004
Ed Josefoski
One of three Point Park players with 1,000 points and 1,000 rebounds, played from 1967-71.

Jack Yard
The 1991 District 18 Player of the Year hit .397 with 22 home runs and 177 RBIs from 1988-91.

Class of 2005
Joe Fiori
Shortstop from 1975-79 hit .462 as a senior to help the Pioneers finish third in the country in ’79.

Class of 2006
Mark Ansani
Baseball player from 1989-92 ranks in top 10 in runs and hits, played in two NAIA World Series.

Jill Bennett-Mangum
Softball star was the NAIA District 18 Pitcher of the Year three times from 1991-94.

Rafal Kolankowski
Men’s soccer star had 25 goals and 64 points from 1992-95 in program’s early years.

Class of 2007
Mark Jackson
Baseball coach led Pioneers to a record of 443-119-4 and five trips to NAIA World Series.

1986 baseball team
The Pioneers (51-8) finished third in the NAIA in 1986, matched only by the 1979 team.

Class of 2008
Melissa Charles
Women’s basketball’s all-time leading scorer had 2,410 points (21.6 avg.) from 1994-99.

Jana Orlofske
Point Park’s first truly great volleyball player was NAIA All-Region from 1994-97.

Class of 2009-10
Don Kelly
All-American in 2001 and school’s career batting leader at .413 went on to MLB career.

Sam Depe III
Standout men’s golfer from 1967-71 helped the Pioneers finish fourth at 1969 NAIA tourney.

Chris Heh
Men’s soccer all-time leading scorer with 50 goals and 111 points from 1996-98.

Linda Keibler
Basketball, volleyball and softball standout from 1992-96 helped build women’s programs.