Screenwriting & Camp Hollywood
July 7 to July 23, 2015

SAVE 20% Off Tuition
July 6 -23, 2015 - Three (3) week workshop
(OPEN TO STUDENTS ENTERING GRADES 9 THRU 12 & GRADUATES)

During the first week, you will learn the tools that uncover the mysteries of storytelling for television and film. By the end of the week, you will have written your very own short original screenplay. During weeks two and three, you will fine-tune your script, as well as learn the essentials of how to make a great movie. You’ll learn how to operate the Panasonic HVX-200 HD video camera and how to use and optimize ADOBE PREMIERE editing software to polish your production. At the end of the camp, all the films made will be screened at a mini-film festival.

Please note: Some examples and films used in the class may include R-rated material. Students 16 and older may choose to live on campus in Point Park University residence halls that are supervised by a resident advisor. All facilities are monitored by a security staff 24 hours a day.

Program opened to the first 12 students!

* Students must be at least 16 years of age at the start of program to live on campus.

 Tuition for Commuters $ 1,365 Includes lunch buffet

 Tuition for * Residents $ 2,350 ( includes housing & meals)
