

CERTIFICATE IN INTELLIGENCE AND NATIONAL SECURITY

2011-2012

Student's Name _____

Entrance Date _____

This eighteen (18) credit certificate program is designed for adult students who seek to supplement their skills in intelligence and national security. All credits successfully completed at Point Park University within this certificate will be applicable, upon acceptance, into the Bachelor of Science program in Intelligence and National Security.

DEPARTMENT MAJOR REQUIREMENTS 18

Choose 6 courses from the following:

___	CRMJ	330	Terrorism Risk Assessment/ Investigations	3
___	INTL	101	Intelligence & Security Principles	3
___	INTL	102	Intelligence Tradecraft Techniques	3
___	INTL	103	International Terrorism	3
___	INTL	301	Intelligence Analyst/Critical Thinking (Program)	3
___	INTL	302	National Intelligence Authorities	3
___	INTL	306	Emergency Planning & Sec Measures	3
___	INTL	401	High Impact Event Planning	3
___	INTL	403	Weapons of Mass Destruction	3

Program Objectives

Certificate in Intelligence and National Security

Upon successful completion of this program, a student will be able to:

1. Identify the role of intelligence in formulating national security policies and the protection of U.S. interest abroad.
 - Identify each of the 16 intelligence agencies in the U.S.
 - Compare and contrast the specific duties of each agency
2. Describe how task specific information is procured by an agency.
 - Define the collection, planning ,analysis and dissemination processes
 - Evaluate the various methods of collection and apply those best suited for certain tasks
3. Compare and contrast the missions of different intelligence agencies
 - Interpret the difference between military and civilian intelligence
 - Prioritize intelligence information into long term assessment or immediate threat response categories.