TODAY’S MATCHUP:
Point Park welcomes Daemen for an AMC game at CCAC-South. It is the first meeting since last year’s regular-season finale, won by Point Park at home, 88-87. Daemen had led by 24 at the half, but the Point Park win gave the Pioneers the last AMC playoff spot over the Wildcats. Daemen holds a slight edge in the all-time series, 23-24, between the long-time rivals.

REBOUNDS

2011-12 POINT PARK MEN’S BASKETBALL STATISTICS

- Point Park Team Notes
  - Point Park enters today’s game in need of getting back on the winning track. The Pioneers are above .500 overall at 9-8, but they have slipped to 2-3 in the AMC by going just 3-5 over their last eight games.
  - Point Park has been off since losing at Roberts Wesleyan, 79-69, in an AMC game on Jan. 21. The Pioneers had a season low for points that game.
  - The Pioneers have the top scoring offense in NAIA Division II at 93.4 ppg. Point Park’s offense features four double-digit scorers, including national leader T.J. Heatherington at 26.7 ppg.
  - Point Park’s perimeter attack ranks fourth in the country with 9.5 made 3s per game. Guards Jimmy Taylor (15.9 ppg) and Robbie Heatherington (15.5 ppg) lead the assault from the outside as one of the top 3-point tandems in the nation.
  - Senior forwards Devon Alexander (11.9 ppg, 6.3 rpg) and Dante Anglin (7.4 ppg, 10.2 rpg) man the interior. Both players are averaging career highs in points and rebounds. Anglin ranks 7th in the country in rebounding average.
  - Eric Johnson has played in five games after sitting out the first semester. He is contributing 8.2 ppg and 5.2 rpg off the bench and has reached double figures the last three games.
  - Other reserve players for Point Park include Josh Pohlot (F), Asa Braxton (G/F), Jamar Washington (G/F) and Dave Mzechics (C).

- Daemen Team Notes
  - Daemen is 14-9 overall and 6-1 in the AMC. The Wildcats’ lone conference loss was at Walsh, 76-51, on Jan. 17. But Daemen has won its last two conference games and six of its last seven games overall entering today.
  - Daemen is coming off a pair of AMC road wins last week. The Wildcats won at Fisher, 87-44, and at Houghton, 75-59.
  - Daemen has been strong at home with a 6-1 record in Amherst, N.Y. But the Wildcats are 6-5 on the road and 2-3 at neutral sites. With Daemen’s record at home, it gives reason why the Wildcats would like a home playoff game.
  - The Wildcats have three double-figure scorers with forward Dom Mazzocchi (13.8 ppg, 5.3 rpg) leading the way. He is a 6-5 senior capable of scoring inside and out.
  - Forward Jim Regan (12.8 ppg, 5.3 rpg) provides size down low at 6-7 and shoots 54% from the field. Casey Sheehan is a 5-9 guard averaging 10.4 ppg.
  - Point guard Mark Coppola (5.5 ppg) has a team-high 5.9 assists per game. Guard/forward Kadeem Johnson (6.3 ppg) is the fifth starter.
  - Guard/Forward Devon Dawson (8.2 ppg) and center Gerald Beverly (8.0 ppg, 3.5 rpg) are the main players off the bench. Beverly adds size at 6-7.
  - The Wildcats have an inside presence on the defense end as they rank first in the country at 5.1 bpg. Beverly (6-7) has 39 blocks, Regan (6-7) has 31, Mazzocchi (6-5) has 15.

AMC Men’s Basketball Standings (Jan. 27): Daemen 6-1 AMC (14-9 overall), Walsh 6-2 (17-4), Wilberforce 4-2 (8-14), Roberts Wesleyan 3-2 (7-13), Point Park 2-3 (9-8), Fisher 2-7 (8-17), Houghton 0-6 (7-12). Top four teams make the playoffs. Walsh ineligible for postseason.
