TONIGHT’S MATCHUP — Point Park vs. Daemen

What’s at Stake: Top seed Point Park hosts No. 2 seed Daemen in the American Mideast Conference Tournament Championship Game at CCAC-South Gymnasium in West Mifflin, Pa. The winner gets the conference’s automatic bid to the 21st Annual State Farm-NAIA Division II National Championship March 7-13 in Sioux City, Iowa. The loser will have to await a possible at-large bid to the national tournament. The final NAIA DII Top 25 Poll, which is used to determine the at-large invitations, and the 32-bracket pairings will be announced by the NAIA office the evening of Feb. 29. Point Park is ranked No. 24, and Daemen is receiving votes and four spots back.

Previous Meetings: The teams split the regular-season meetings with the home team winning each time. Point Park beat then-No. 19 Daemen, 51-43, at home Jan. 28. Daemen returned the favor by beating then-No. 22 Point Park, 67-51, at home Feb. 18.

Daemen Wildcats (23-6, 12-2 AMC) — Head Coach: Dave Skolen, 20th season

Top Storylines — The Wildcats are in the AMC Tournament Championship Game for the third year in a row and will look to make up for losing in this game the past two seasons to Walsh. Daemen still made it to the NAIA national tournament last year, and they won a game there to finish in the final 16. Although the Wildcats lost three key seniors from last year’s squad, they are back to the conference finals led by players taking on bigger roles this season. Daemen sports one of the toughest and tallest defenses in the NAIA Division II and reached as high as No. 16 in the rankings.

Key players — Ellie Allen (G, 5-9, Jr) is the leading scorer and rebounder at 14.0 ppg and 6.9 rpg. Guard/forward Chelsea Andorka (11.8 ppg) and center Monica Kosior (11.8 ppg) give the Wildcats three double-digit scorers.

Key stats — The Wildcats also have a highly ranked defense that is first in NAIA DII in field-goal defense (.231), eighth in offensive rebounds per game (17.2), ninth in steals per game (12.7) and 14th in scoring margin (+13.5).

Head coach — Dave Skolen is in his 20th season as women’s head coach at his alma mater. He has a record of 410-231 (.666) and led Butler County CC the five years before that. He is a native of Butler and an IUP grad.
