TOMTOM’S MATCHUP:
Point Park and Walsh meet in an AMC game at CCAC-South. Point Park (9-4) has won four in a row and is 1-0 in the conference. Walsh (6-7) has lost three in a row overall but is a perfect 3-0 in the AMC. The teams will also play Feb. 7 at Walsh (6 p.m.). The Cavs won both games last year, 70-63 on the road and 68-48 at home.

Point Park Team Notes

- Point Park is in the midst of a season-best, four-game winning streak. The Pioneers have won five of their last six games to run their record to 9-4 overall and 1-0 in the American Mideast Conference.

- Point Park is 9-4 for the second year in a row. Last year, Point Park was 9-4 on New Year’s Eve, but ended up with a 14-13 record overall.

- Point Park is 3-1 at home with the only loss being to a strong Mt. Vernon Nazarene team at the end of a four-games-in-five-days stretch.

- The Pioneers boast a strong defense as their opponent’s scoring average of 54.4 ppg ranks fifth in the nation. Point Park allows 34-percent shooting (7th in NAIA DII), records 5.0 blocks per game (8th) and has a turnover margin of +6.2 (9th).

- Point Park has allowed more than 56 points on only three occasions — a 72-61 loss at NCAA DII Fairmont State, a 73-66 win over Rio Grande and a 77-67 loss to Rio Grande.

- The three teams that Point Park has lost to are a combined 26-11 — Fairmont State (7-3), MVNU (9-4) and Rio Grande (10-4). Point Park has beaten Rio Grande twice, including an 83-55 dismantling last Friday.

Walsh Team Notes

- Walsh lost all five starters from last year’s team that was 30-5 overall and reached the semifinals of the NAIA Division II national tournament.

- Although the Cavs are 6-7 overall, they are off to a 3-0 start in the AMC. Walsh owns AMC wins over lowly teams Fisher (2) and Carlow, and all games have been big blowouts.

- Walsh is in year two of its NCAA Division II candidacy. Thus, the Cavs are not eligible for AMC or NAIA postseason. They can, however, compete for the conference’s regular-season title and win individual awards and all-conference honors. Results versus Walsh will not count toward playoff qualification or seeding. The results will however be listed in a team’s AMC record in the league standings.

- Leading scorer Tracy Payne (G, 12.8 ppg) is a transfer from former AMC school Notre Dame (OH). Sophomore Daniella Ciccarone (G, 10.3 ppg) is the only other player in double figures.

- The frontcourt gets solid play from Kristi Yoder (8.7 ppg), Maggie Berry (7.7 ppg) and Mandi Swickard (8.2 ppg). Freshman forward Tanisha Lawler (5.2 ppg) is the only player with much production off the bench.
