Point Park Pioneers (12-4, 6-3 KIAC) vs. University of Maine-Fort Kent (8-6, 0-0 conf.)

TONIGHT’S MATCHUP:
Point Park returns home for a non-conference game versus the University of Maine-Fort Kent. The Pioneers, 12-4 overall, have lost two in a row and are home for tonight’s game before heading out on the road for three KIAC games this coming weekend. Point Park will look to get back on the winning track against a young UMFK team that has won two in a row to improve to 8-6 overall. Maine-Fort Kent is nationally affiliated with the USCAA although it had been in NAIA Division II up until 2011-12.

POINT PARK UNIVERSITY PIONEERS (12-4 overall, 6-3 KIAC)
The Skinny: Point Park is enjoying a strong record of 12-4 overall and 6-3 KIAC although it was stung last weekend in its toughest KIAC road games of the year. PPU had won eight in a row before dropping its last two games. The win streak included five home wins, and they’ll have to get it done on the road with three important KIAC games away from home this Friday through Sunday.

Last Time Out: Point Park lost at KIAC-leading Alice Lloyd (Ky.), 63-57, on Jan. 4 and lost the next day at conference preseason No. 2 pick Asbury (Ky.), 83-75, on Jan. 5.

Key Players: F Ja’Nia McPhatter is the leading scorer and rebounder but is scheduled to miss tonight’s game resting an injury. April Austin and Emily Schartner score double-digits in the backcourt.

Key Stats: Point Park is shooting 36.6% from the field, which is lower than its opponent’s field goal percentage of 38.1%. PPU attempts 20.3 treys per game and makes 6.3 treys per game.

Home Cooking: Point Park is 7-1 at home and has won five straight at CCAC-South. The Pioneers are 19-1 at home since the start of last year. Point Park is 5-3 on the road including 2-2 in the KIAC. Tonight is the lone home game in a current stretch of five road games in six contests.

Tied for Best Start: At 12-4 overall, Point Park is tied for its best start in school history through 16 games. The Pioneers were also 12-4 last year on their way to their best record ever at 23-7 overall.

Front-Loaded Schedule: PPU has already finished playing its toughest KIAC regular season games. PPU has played two games each vs. the other top four teams in the conference — Alice Lloyd (5-1), Asbury (3-2), Brescia (4-3) and IU Southeast (3-2). Remaining games are versus the bottom four.

Up Next: Point Park leaves Thursday for three KIAC games at Berea (Ky.) on Jan. 11, at Midway (Ky.) on Jan. 12 and vs. St. Louis College of Pharmacy on Jan. 13 at neutral site Midway, Ky.

UNIV. OF MAINE-FORT KENT BENGALS (8-6 overall, 0-0 conf.)
The Skinny: The Bengals are 8-6 overall and are coming off road wins at St. Joseph’s (VT), 71-59, on Jan. 6 and at Vermont Tech, 78-53, on Jan. 7. UMFK has played just two home games and is 2-0 at home, 3-4 on the road and 3-2 on neutral courts. The Bengals used to be of the NAIA and the Sunnise Conference, but they joined national affiliation with the USCAA when the Sunnise Conf. folded after 2010-11. Head coach Bradley Holabird is in his 2nd year and is also the school’s athletic trainer.

Key Players: Junior G Jennifer Colpitts leads the perimeter attack at 12.2 ppg. Freshman F Samatha Carapellucci became a recent starter and is 10.9 ppg. Sophomore F Ericka Christensen averages of double-double of 17.4 ppg and 11.6 rpg but has not played the last two games since Dec. 9.

Key Stats: The Bengals score 65.4 ppg and give up 62.1 ppg. They shoot 41% from the field and 34% from 3-point range. UMFK forces 20.1 turnovers per game but also commits 20.9 on its own.

Young Roster: The Bengals have a young team as their 11-player roster has five freshmen, four sophomores, two juniors and no seniors. Both juniors are starters.
