Athletics Department

Students will work with the sports information director in game-day coverage, including official scoring, statistics keeping, writing game-day stories, public address announcing, working with live audio equipment, scoreboard operations and other general duties. The position will also include day-to-day office duties including writing feature stories, content for publications, such as game programs, and assisting in general office operations.