U-View Broadcast Network and “On the Point”

Students will work on our new student broadcasting network, classroom projects, broadcast practicum productions and other projects. Assignments may include assisting instructors, writing scripts, serving as grips or crew members on student field productions, and assisting the broadcast graduate assistant on specific TV projects. Students will also assist in general TV show operations.