2012-13 MEN'S BASKETBALL SEASON OUTLOOK

The Point Park University men's basketball team in 2012-13 has no shortage of scorers. Not only did the Pioneers lead NAIA Division II points per game last year at 88.6 ppg, they have added to their collection of high-scoring players this year. Point Park has 3 of 5 starters returning from the 2011-12 team that was 13-12 overall and made the conference play-offs at 6-6. Point Park had four double-digit scorers a year ago, and three are returning with NAIA DII scoring leader T.J. Heatherington (PG, Sr., 24.5 ppg) back in the fold along with his brother Robbie Heatherington (G, Jr. 14.1 ppg) and Jimmy Taylor (G, Sr., 13.4 ppg). Point Park also returns another perimeter threat, Asa Braxton (G, Sr., 7.8 ppg), who came on strong at the end of last year, and post player Josh Pohlot (F, Jr., 4.3 ppg).

Added to the mix are several players – transfers especially – who will impact the lineup immediately. The Pioneers have added to the frontcourt to make up for the loss of starting forwards Devon Alexander (F, 6-5, 13.7 ppg) and Dante Anglin (F, 6-5, 6.4 ppg, 9.6 rpg), who have graduated. They have also added to a backcourt that was already stocked with returnees.

Putting it all together makes the Pioneers a very guard-oriented team, that although does not have a lot of height, is still taller than last year. The guard-heavy lineup will play right into hands of head coach Bob Rager's fast-past style, which has had the Pioneers in the top five in the country in scoring five of the last seven years. Rager, in his 24th year at his alma mater, employs run-and-gun system that encourages players to always shoot when open and is focused on creating a lot of possessions on offense.

That scheme plays very well to the talents of Point Park's three returning starters. Point guard T.J. Heatherington was a high volume scorer last year but also gets his teammates involved. The NAIA DII First Team All-American not only led the nation in scoring (24.5 ppg), he was also fourth in assists at 6.2 apg. Heatherington, a Serra Catholic alum, is relied on to set the tone by pushing the ball up floor, and he can look to shoot, drive or pass.

T.J. Heatherington had plenty of targets last year and this year, most notable returning wings Robbie Heatherington and Jimmy Taylor. Both were among the leading 3-point shooters in the nation in 2011-12. Taylor, from Keystone Oaks High School, shot 38% from long distance last year and was 10th in the country with 3.04 treys per game. Robbie Heatherington shot 35% from long distance and was 26th in NAIA DII with 2.58 treys per game. Another wing player returning is Asa Braxton, a senior from Hampton High School, played his best ball the second half of last year. He averaged 7.8 ppg for the year but scored 15.2 ppg as a starting player the last eight games of 2011-12. Braxton shot 38% percent from distance, and he can also drive to the hoop.

While the Pioneers should be perimeter oriented with a lot of 3-point attempts, a welcome addition for the team is center Babatunde Somoye, a 6-9, 280-pound transfer from NAIA Langston (Okla.) University. Somoye, also known as "Babs", is a native of London, England, who gives the Pioneers a formidable post presence on both ends of the floor. He is a former soccer player with great feet, soft hands and a nice touch around the basket.

Another top newcomer is Josh Arnold, a 6-5 swing player who transferred from WVU Tech. Arnold was a high scorer at Monessen High School, and he'll have opportunities to score inside and out for the Pioneers. Also in the same mold as Arnold is freshman Matt Noszka (F, 6-4, Fr.), a Chartiers Valley High School product who sat out last season at Point Park. He is a very athletic and active player on both ends who can create mismatches as an inside-outside threat. Another transfer who will add to the arsenal of guards is Gabe McNeal (G, 6-1, Jr.), who was at NCAA DII Shaw (N.C.) University. McNeal, the son of former Pitt star Chris McNeal (1990-93), did not play much on a very good Shaw team but averaged 12.3 ppg at Cecil (Md.) CC the year before. He gives the Pioneers yet another wing player who can fill it up from the 3-point line, and he can also create off the dribble.

Other newcomers are J.J. Krysinsky, a freshman guard from Fox Chapel HS, and Jared Sturt, a freshman forward from Maumee Valley Country Day in Toledo, Ohio. Also adding to the depth are newcomers Blair Jones (C, 6-4, Sr.), from Duquesne, Pa., Algie Lovelace (G, 5-10, So.), from Washington, D.C. and Romel Powell (G, 6-1, Fr.), from Pittsburgh.

ABOUT THE KIAC – Point Park Begins New Era in KIAC in 2012-13

With membership in the Kentucky Intercollegiate Athletic Conference beginning in 2012-13, Point Park is beginning a new chapter in its athletics history, one that has included national affiliation with the NAIA for its entire 45 years of athletics versus four-year schools. Point Park has been in NAIA Division II for men's and women's basketball since 2000-01. NAIA Division II was created in 1992 by the national office.

The KIAC has 11 schools (9 bold names play men's basketball): Alice Lloyd College (Pippa Passes, Ky.), Asbury University (Wilmore, Ky.), Berea College (Berea, Ky.), Brescia University (Owensboro, Ky.), Carlow University (Pittsburgh, Pa.), Cincinnati Christian University (Cincinnati, Ohio), Indiana University East (Richmond, Ind.), Indiana University Southeast (New Albany, Ind.), Midway College (Midway, Ky.), Point Park University (Pittsburgh, Pa.) and St. Louis College of Pharmacy (St. Louis, Mo.).

Point Park men's basketball was picked to finish 7th of 9 teams in the 2012-13 KIAC Preseason Coaches' Poll (Oct. 25). IU Southeast was picked as the preseason favorite and is ranked No. 6 in NAIA Division II in the preseason Top 25. IU East was picked second in the KIAC and is pre-season No. 22 in the nation. The Pioneers will play 15 KIAC games with a home-and-home versus seven teams and a single game vs. SLCOP.

HEAD COACH BOB RAGER

24th season Career Record: 323-313 (all at Point Park)
Alma Mater: Point Park ('74)
3 NAIA national tournaments ('96-97, '00-01, '06-07)

Bob Rager is the all-time winningest coach at his alma mater, Point Park University. The 2012-13 season is his 24th year as head coach of the Pioneers. Rager took over the Point Park program for the 1989-90. Since then, he has amassed a record of 323-313 (.508). In 2010-11, he passed the legendary Jerry Conboy for the all-time lead in career wins at Point Park.

Playing Rager's fast, up-tempo style of play that is focused on high scoring, Point Park has been one of the highest scoring teams in the country during Rager's tenure. Point Park has been at the top of the NAIA scoring charts for much of the last decade.

The Pioneers have ranked in the top five of NAIA Division II in scoring in five of the last seven years. That stretch includes leading the country in scoring in back-to-back years in 2005-06 (89.94 ppg) and 2006-07 (92.94 ppg) and again last year in 2011-12 (88.6 ppg). The Pioneers ranked third in the country in 2007-08 (88.29) and they were fifth in 2010-11 (87.8 ppg).

Rager's time at Point Park includes leading the Pioneers to the NAIA national tournament three times and being named American Mideast Conference Coach of the Year two times. Rager's best accomplishment as head coach at Point Park is a trip to the NAIA Division I Final Four in 1996-97. He also led the Pioneers to the NAIA DI Sweet 16 in 2000-01. Point Park was 29-1 to earn the No. 3 overall seed in 2006-07, but was upset in the first round.

Under Rager, Point Park has made the postseason 20 of the past 23 seasons. That includes conference championship in 1996-97 and 2006-07. Rager has been named Coach of the Year on two occasions. He was AMC Coach of the Year in 2006-07 and 2004-05.

Rager has the second-most wins of any four-year college basketball coach in the City of Pittsburgh. The all-time leader in that category is Pitt coach Dr. H.C. 'Doc' Carlson, who had a record of 367-248 in 31 years from 1922-53. Next on the list is Duquesne's Charles 'Chick' Davies, who compiled a mark of 314-106 in 21 years from 1925-43 and 1947-48. Conboy now stands fourth with a record of 305-241 in 20 years from 1969-89.

Rager's 323 career wins at Point Park surpassed Conboy, who won 305 games in 20 years from 1969-89. Rager got his record 306th win Jan. 27, 2011 in a 90-80 victory over nationally ranked #18 Malone. In its 45-year history, Point Park men's basketball has had just four head coaches. Rager and Conboy have combined to coach the last 43 seasons. Rager was an NAIA All-American guard playing for Conboy from 1970-74 and later was an assistant under Conboy.

The Pioneers won the AMC championship in 2006-07. That year, Point Park earned a trip to the NAIA Division II tournament after winning 29 of their first 30 games. Although Point Park lost in the first round, it set a record for wins in a season with a final record of 29-2 and scoring average at 92.9 ppg. Also, the Pioneers set a record for consecutive victories by winning 20 games in a row.

Rager has guided the Pioneers to three 20-win seasons, with each of those resulting in a NAIA national tournament appearance. Since 2000, Point Park is averaging 16 wins per season under Rager.

The 2006-07 season marked the second straight AMC North Division title for the Pioneers, and they ended the season with a No. 3 ranking in the final NAIA Division II poll to set a school record for highest spot in the national ratings.

A native of the Pittsburgh suburb of Munhall, Pa., Rager was Point Park's first All-American, and he is one of a dozen players who have scored more than 1,000 career points. Rager scored 1,071 career points, and his 367 career assists rank sixth in school history. In his four-year career he averaged 12.6 points, 4.7 rebounds and 4.3 assists per game. Rager shot 43 percent from the field.

ASSISTANT COACH GABE BUBON (Point Park '00) – 8th year

Gabe Bubon is in his 8th season as an assistant coach for the Point Park men's basketball team. In addition to his men's basketball coaching duties, Bubon is also the head coach of the Pioneers' men's and women's golf teams. Bubon's primary responsibilities as a men's basketball assistant include creating scouting reports, working with the team's top guards and top shooters, running individual workouts and tape exchange.

Bubon played basketball at Point Park for one year in 1999-2000. That year he led the American Mideast Conference in scoring at 21.0 points per game, a figure that ranked 10th in NAIA Division I. He shares the Point Park single-game scoring record with 45 points at Shawnee St. on 2-11-00. Bubon made 11 treys in that game, which is also record.

In 2002-03, he averaged 17.0 points and 5.0 rebounds per game at Brewton-Parker College, an NAIA member in Mt. Vernon, Ga. That season he was named the Newcomer of the Year in the Southern States Athletic Conference. His collegiate playing career also includes a stop at Lakeland Community College. Before starting his coaching career, Bubon pursued pro playing opportunities in Europe and the USBL.

Bubon got his start in coaching as a men's basketball student assistant at Point Park from 2003-05 before becoming an assistant coach in 2005-06. He has been the top assistant the last six years.

2011-12 SEASON RECAP – Overall Record: 13-12, AMC Record 6-6,

The 2011-12 season ended in another playoff appearance for the Point Park Pioneers, their 20th playoff appearance in head coach Bob Rager's 23 years at the helm. Point Park lost in the first round of the American Mideast Conference Tournament, 91-76, to Wilberforce to finish 13-12 overall and 6-6 in the American Mideast Conference. It was a respectable year for the Pioneers, who led the country in scoring (88.5 ppg) despite having to replace four double-digit scorers who graduated from the season before. With no players on the roster taller than 6-5, the Point Park still led the country in team rebounding average (43.9 rpg).

Point Park got off to a slow start with a 1-3 record on Nov. 12, 2011. But the Pioneers followed that up with a season-long, five-game winning streak to run their record to 6-3. That stretch included a big upset at Fairmont State, a strong NCAA DII team, 107-100. Point Park began conference play with a thrilling, 82-81, win at Fisher Dec. 1, 2011 as Robbie Heatherington hit the game-winning shot. But Point Park went on to lose its next four AMC games, the last of which was an 82-78 home loss to Daemen on Jan. 28, 2012.

After that, the Pioneers played some of their best basketball of the season by winning four of their next five games – all of which came in conference play – to get back into the playoff race. That streak included road wins at Wilberforce (88-71) and Houghton (83-61). Although Point Park lost to playoff non-eligible Walsh, it rebounded with home wins over Roberts Wesleyan (94-85) and Fisher (98-86) on consecutive days to run the AMC record above .500 at 6-5. Although Point Park ended the regular season with a loss at playoff No. 1 seed

PLAYER BIOGRAPHIES – Returning Players

#3 T.J. HEATHERINGTON

Guard, 5-10, 170, Senior

Hometown: McKeesport, Pa. High school: Serra Catholic

NAIA Division II First Team All-American 2011-12 (NAIA DII Scoring Leader)

All-AMC First Team 2011-12 All-AMC Second Team 2009-10

All-AMC Freshmen Team 2009-10

Coach Rager: “T.J. is the catalyst of our team. We expect big things from him and to run our offense. He has gotten every possible individual honor in his career, and now it’s time for him to lead the team, score like he knows how, but also get others involved. We need him to produce offensively with points and assists and to set our tempo. He will have the ball in his hands for a majority, so he will dictate everything we do. T.J. is a great scorer, has a great feel for the game, sees the floor and is excellent at getting to the foul line.”

Profile: Heatherington is a scoring point guard who is relied on to push the ball up the court in coach Rager’s fast-paced, up-tempo style of play that is focused on scoring. Heatherington is a major key to the Point Park offense running at the pace that Rager likes. He led the nation in scoring as a junior and was fourth in assists. When healthy, he has started every game of his career. Heatherington is a great penetrator and can score inside and from the perimeter. He has career averages of 18.8 ppg and 5.7 apg. He has 1,167 career points to rank 12th in school history. His 352 assists rank eighth, and he is third all-time in free throws made with 343. Heatherington’s 80.9-percent free-throw shooting ranks sixth in Point Park history.

#23 ROBBIE HEATHERINGTON

Guard, 6-0, 180, Junior

Hometown: McKeesport, Pa. High school: Serra Catholic

Coach Rager “Robbie developed his game and had a great sophomore season. He has the ability to progress even further. Nobody plays the game harder than Robbie. He is a great shooter who always has the green light. He’s also a smart player who does a lot of things right on the floor. Robbie will mostly play on the wing but will also see some time at the point.”

Profile: Heatherington broke into the starting lineup in his sophomore year and was second on the team at 14.1 ppg... after his freshman season, he took his game to the next level... a great three-point shooter, he was second on the Pioneers with 62 treys and shot 35% from long range... a good rebounder for a guard with 4.8 rpg last year... very intense player on defense who plays the game very hard.

2011-12: Heatherington started 15 of 24 games at the shooting guard position... reached double figures in scoring 19 times including a career-high 24 vs. Lourdes on 11-11-11... was second on the team with 62 made 3-pt field goals and ranked 26th in NAIA DII with 2.58 made 3-pt FGs per game... shot 80.5% from the foul line to rank 34th in the country.

2010-11: Heatherington was one of the top guard options off the bench as a freshman. He had a season high of 23 points versus Penn State-Fayette. He delivered in a big way with 18 points in an overtime win over Cedarville when he helped make up for two injured starters, including his brother T.J. His best all-around game was 19 points, five rebounds and seven assists at Wilberforce. Heatherington is not known as a rebounder, but he had a career high nine versus a tall Roberts Wesleyan team.

High school: He scored over 1,000 points for his career in leading the Eagles to three section championships in a row. Led by the Heatherington brothers, Serra Catholic won WPIAL and PIAA Class A championships during the 2007-08 season. The Eagles were runners-up in the WPIAL and the PIAA during Robbie Heatherington’s junior season of 2008-09. Heatherington was the McKeesport Daily News Player of the Year last season. He was also tabbed to the Pittsburgh Post-Gazette Fab 5 team and the Tribune-Review Terrific 10. He earned three letters in basketball and four in football. He was the quarterback for Serra’s football team after playing wide receiver his first three years. He went under center after his older brother vacated the starting quarterback position. Robbie threw for over 1,000 yards in 2009. In addition to their PIAA basketball title in 2007-08, the Heatherington brothers also won the state football title that year. Personal: Son of Paul and Kelly Heatherington... born March 25, 1992... majoring in business.

#11 JOSH POHLOT

Guard/Forward, 6-4, 210, Junior

Hometown: Belle Vernon, Pa. High school: Belle Vernon Area

Coach Rager: “Josh is a very active player on the boards and as a shot blocker. He is athletic, and he has gotten stronger from his freshman to junior years. He has come into this season in great shape, and he brings a great attitude and energy. He jumps really well and is a factor on the offensive boards and with blocking shots.

Profile: Pohlot was a starter at the beginning of last year before a hand injury forced him to miss some time. As a junior, he’ll be in the mix to start in the post although a broke finger on his right hand will keep him out to start the year. A long and athletic forward with good jumping ability, he can be a force on the defensive end with shot blocking and rebounding. A 46% career shooter, he is a capable offensive player who is good at taking it to the hoop and scoring off offensive rebounds.

2011-12: Pohlot played in 19 games and made 4 starts... he battled a hand injury that forced in to miss 6 games... was a starter at the beginning of the year before being hurt... had a season-high 13 points vs. Toronto 11-5-11... grabbed a season-high 8 rebounds vs. York 11-4-11...

2010-11: Pohlot played in 25 of 27 games and made two starts as a freshman. He reached double figures four times with the career high of 14 coming at Cedarville. Other strong games were 12 points and eight rebounds versus Penn State-Fayette and 10 points and nine rebounds at home versus Penn State-Fayette. His career high of 11 rebounds came at Houghton. He registered five or more rebounds eight times with six of those coming in the first eight games of the season.

High school: Pohlot scored over 1,000 points for his career and was a three-time, all-section player at Belle Vernon. He capped off his career by averaging 18.1 points and 9.6 rebounds per game in leading the Leopards to a 17-7 record and a playoff berth. He shot 51% from the floor and made 28 3-pointers. One of the top players in the Greensburg area, Pohlot was named the Tribune-Review Terrific 10 team. He played in the Mid-States Roundball Classic where he led all scorers with 16 points to give Pennsylvania a 102-99 win over Maryland. An excellent student Pohlot earned high honors in high school. Personal: Son of Mike and Andrea Pohlot... born Jan. 29, 1992... majoring in sports, arts and entertainment management.

PLAYER BIOGRAPHIES

#22 JIMMY TAYLOR

Guard, 6-1, 185, Senior

Hometown: Pittsburgh, Pa. High School: Keystone Oaks Previous School: CCAC-Allegheny

Coach Rager: "Jimmy is a great shooter, and he has a good understanding of the game. We want him to shoot a lot, and in fact, we want him to shoot even more than last year. He can really fill it up, and he's at his best when he pulls the trigger right away. He's learned the he needs to go 100% all the time to be effective in our system. He's always in good position, and is a good passer, too."

Profile: Taylor is in his second year at Point Park and was a starter last year in his first season on campus. He transferred from CCAC-Allegheny, where he spent two years and was an NJCAA Honorable Mention All-American. Taylor is a proven, double-digit scorer who is one of the many shooters for the Pioneers. He shoots a high percentage from the floor and 3-point range and has a good assist-to-turnover ratio.

2011-12: Taylor started 18 of 25 games at shooting guard in his first year at Point Park...was the team's leading 3-point shooter...averaged 13.4 ppg to rank fourth on the team...made a team-high 76 3-pointers to lead the team...ranked 10th in NAIA DII with 3.04 made 3-point FGs per game...shot 79% from the foul line...scored in double figures 16 times including the first 12 games of the season consecutively...had a career-high 28 points vs. Marygrove 11-12-11.

#00 ASA BRAXTON

Guard/Forward, 6-2, 200, Senior

Hometown: Pittsburgh, Pa. High School: Hampton Previous School: Seton Hill

Coach Rager: "Asa has been a great addition for us, and I don't know if we make the playoffs last year without his great play down the stretch. He goes all-out at all times, has a great attitude and is really determined as a senior. We want him to play fast, not worry about mistakes and don't think. If he does that, he can play at a high level."

Profile: Braxton is in his second year at Point Park after transferring last year from Seton Hill...one of the best athletes on the team, he plays on the wing but is also able to go into the post if necessary...possesses a good shooting stroke from the perimeter and is also good in the open floor...is a strong rebounder from the backcourt...has the ability to guard a variety of positions.

2011-12: Braxton played in all 25 games in his first season on campus and started 8 games...he scored in double figures 10 times including 6 of the final 7 games of the season...he broke into the starting lineup late in the year and was a key performer down the stretch run...had a career-high 23 points at Wilberforce...averaged 7.8 ppg for the season but increased that to 9.7 ppg in conference games...averaged 15.2 ppg the last eight games of the year...had a career-high 23 points on 5 of 6 shooting from 3-point land in a breakout game at Wilberforce...made 4 of more treys in 5 of the last 7 games of the year...led the team in 3-point accuracy at 38%.

At Seton Hill: He played in 18 games and made two starts during the 2007-08 season. He averaged 3.7 points and 1.1 rebounds in 8.6 minutes per game. He shot 42% from the field and 38% from 3-point range (15 for 39).

High School: Braxton averaged 18 points and five assists per game as a senior at Hampton High School, where he graduated in 2007. He led the Talbots to a runner-up finish in the WPIAL championship and also the section title.

#50 BABATUNDE SOMOYE

Center, 6-9, 280, Senior

Hometown: London, England Previous Schools: Brevard (Fla.) CC, Langston (Okla.) Univ.

Coach Rager: “Babs gives us a legitimate post player. He’s come in in great shape, he’s a former soccer player who’s really light on his feet and has all the post moves. He has picked up our system very well. We need him to take up space in the middle, block shots and rebound. Babs rebounds and outlets very well to get us out on the break. He also trails the play well and can finish great.”

Profile: Somoye is a 6-9 center who transferred from NAIA Langston (Okla.) University. He has not played basketball the last two years, but his game has not shown rust in his time at Point Park. Somoye has a size and skill to be a force with scoring and rebounding down low.

Prior to Point Park: Somoye started his career with two years at Brevard (Fla.) CC, where he played a total of 44 games. As a backup both years, his best season included 4.5 ppg and 4.0 rpg and 48% shooting from the floor. Somoye spent the 2009-10 season at NAIA Langston (Okla.), where he averaged 5.3 ppg and 4.5 rpg in just 14.7 minutes per game. He shot an impressive 53% from the floor that season.
