WEEKEND MATCHUPS / TOP STORYLINES

MATCHUP: Point Park visits Alice Lloyd for a game Jan. 4 in Pippa Passes, Ky., and then travels to Wilmore, Ky., for a game at Asbury on Jan. 5. Both games are in KIAC play.

THE SERIES: Point Park is 1-0 all-time vs. Alice Lloyd with a 118-83 home win Nov. 21. The Pioneers are 0-1 all-time vs. Asbury with a 91-72 home loss on Dec. 17.

TOP STORYLINES: Point Park needs to cure its 0-4 road record, which includes 0-2 in KIAC play. This weekend's games begin a stretch of five road games in the next six games. Point Park is back to .500 overall at 6-6 and at 2-4 in the KIAC has a chance to get back to .500 in league play this weekend. The Pioneers had lost five games in a row before beating Brescia at home Sunday. With the losing streak over and the record at 6-6, the Pioneers can build on that.

POINT PARK PIONEERS (6-6, 2-4 KIAC)

THE SKINNY: The Pioneers have been a streaky team this year as they opened the season winning 5 of 6 only to lose the next five in a row. Just as consistent as an offense that has regularly been above 90 points is a defense that gives up just as many. The Pioneers hope to get just enough points two win, even if its means giving up a lot as well.

85 POINTS TO WIN: A key number for the Pioneers is 85 points. Point Park is 0-4 when scoring less than 85 points but 6-2 when getting 85 points or more. While the Pioneers have proved they can lose even when scoring a lot of points of their own, more often then not, they win with 85+ pts.

KEY PLAYERS: Freshman F Matt Noszka has been the most consistent player at 14.3 ppg and 7.0 rpg. PG T.J. Heatherington is next at 13.4 ppg and leads the team with 5.2 apg. Gabe McNeal, Jimmy Taylor and Asa Braxton are perimeter scorers also averaging double-digits.

KEY STATS: Point Park is 2nd in NAIA Division II in scoring at 92.2 ppg and 7th nationally with 9.3 made 3-pt FGs per game. PPU also gives up 91.8 ppg to rank near the bottom of NAIA DII.

NO. 9 SCORER: T.J. Heatherington now ranks 9th on Point Park's all-time scoring list. With 1,324 career points, he recently passed Jim Ney (1,300). Next up is Damon Wade in 8th place at 1,451.

ALICE LLOYD (KY.) UNIVERSITY EAGLES (7-7, 1-1 KIAC)

THE SKINNY: The Eagles are 7-7 overall and 1-1 KIAC. They haven't played since beating Brescia, 62-60, on Dec. 8. Alice Lloyd's leading scorer is point guard Isaac Wilson, a 5-9 senior. Other double-digit scorers are post players Tyler Rogers (6-8) and Terry Muse (6-9).

KEY STATS: Alice Lloyd leads NAIA DII in blocks per game at 5.9 bpg and also ranks 4th nationally in rebounding margin at +10.5. Despite the height, the Eagles still give up 44% field goals.

AT PPU NOV. 21: In the 118-83 loss at Point Park Nov. 21, Wilson had 23 points on 9 of 15 FGs. Muse added 19 pts and 13 reb. ALC had five players in double figures and shot 47% overall.

POINT PARK MEN'S BASKETBALL — 2012-13 GAME NOTES: Games No. 13-14

Jan. 5 opponent — ASBURY (KY.) UNIVERSITY EAGLES (10-6, 1-0 K1AC)

THE SKINNY: The Eagles are 10-6 overall and 1-0 in the K1AC. They haven't played since winning at Point Park, 91-72, on Dec. 17. Asbury started the year 6-2 but has gone 4-4 since. But that stretch does include starting K1AC play with a victory. Asbury was picked to finish 3rd of 9 teams in the K1AC Preseason Poll this year. That was coming off last year's record of 12-17 overall and 5-8 K1AC. Asbury is a team that shoots a lot of 3-pointers. The Eagles rank 13th in the country in total 3-pointers made at 135 and are 15th nationally with 8.4 made 3-pt FGs per game. Asbury shoots an average of 22.3 treys per game and makes 38% from long range.

KEY PLAYERS: Senior G Adam Delph is a strong all-around player with 20.4 ppg, 6.6 rpg and 3.4 apg. He is a former walk-on for the University of Kentucky and has been at Asbury for three years. G Austin Flannery averages 12.2 ppg and leads the team in 3-pt FGs made (37) and attempted (102). Center Dakotah Euton is 6-8 but also shoots a lot of 3-pointers. He averages 10.6 ppg. Justin Jones, a 6-5 forward, is the leading rebounder at 7.9 rpg and also averages 8.8 ppg.

DEC. 17 AT PPU: In the 91-72 win at Point Park Dec. 17, Asbury had five players score in double figures including four starters. Guard Adam Delph led the way with 21 points, seven rebounds and five assists. Lee'Vaughn Morris and Austin Flannery each had 15 points. The Eagles went inside to Dakotah Euton for 17 points and 14 rebounds. The Eagles shot 47% overall and made 8 of 22 3-pointers.

PROBABLE STARTERS: G Adam Delph, G Austin Flannery, G Lee'Vaughn Morris, F Dakotah Euton, F Justin Jones
