Head coach: Jeroen Walstra, fifth season

Assistant coach: Edward Child, seventh season

JEROEN WALSTRA, Head Coach, 5th season

Jeroen Walstra is in his fifth season as the Point Park men's soccer head coach and his ninth year coaching soccer at Point Park overall. He was the head coach of the school's women's soccer team from 2003-09, and after he took over the men's program in 2007, he coached both teams for three years ('07-09). The 2010 season with the men's soccer team was his first year that he coached only one team, and the results were much better. The Point Park men had been 1-15-1 in 2009 but rebounded to go 8-9 last year, their most wins in 13 years. He has the longest tenure in program history.

2010 Season Review (8-9 overall, 2-6 AMC)

Point Park got off to a fast start at 6-1 before losing some close games in conference play. A huge AMC win early was a 2-1 victory over Walsh. The Pioneers lost to Malone, 2-1 in OT, and then lost at Cedarville, 5-0, to fall to 6-3 overall, 1-2 AMC. A 1-0 win at Daemen evened their AMC record, but the they dropped their last four conference games. Three were by one goal, two in OT.
