I. PROGRAM

Point Park University’s International Summer Dance is a comprehensive dance program that specializes in Ballet, Jazz and Modern. The curriculum includes daily technique classes in Ballet, Jazz and Modern, supplemented by Pointe and Variations, Male Technique, Pas de Deux, Tap, Music for Dancers, Pilates, and Yoga. For participants in the six week program, occasional evening and Saturday afternoon rehearsals are directed toward three performances in the Dance Complex’s state-of-the-art George Rowland White Performance Studio. The International Summer Dance will run from June 18 through July 29, 2017.

In addition to the dance curriculum, Participants may participate in other extra-curricular activities, including, but not limited to, visits to museums, amusement parks, water parks, swimming pools, baseball games, movies, theatrical performances, holiday celebrations, sightseeing, dinners at nearby restaurants and any other related or substitute travel for the purpose of education, social service or other experience (collectively “Related Functions”).

The Related Functions shall include visits to amusement parks, water parks, swimming pools and recreation facilities, including, but not limited to, Kennywood, Sandcastle Water Park and South Park Wave Pool. Participants may elect not to participate in one or more of the Related Functions. The Program and Related Functions shall collectively be referred to hereinafter as the “Program”.

There are inherent risks and dangers of participation in the Program, including, but not limited to, broken bones, soft tissue damage, stress put on joints, muscles, and other body parts, torn muscles and/or ligaments, sprains, posture, hip and knee injuries, emotional distress, eye damage, tooth damage, cuts, wounds, scrapes, abrasions, and/or spinal injuries, animal bite or attack, insect bite or allergic reaction, shock, electrocution, paralysis, drowning, and/or death. During an activity, the Participant may experience fatigue, chill and/or dizziness which may diminish the Participant’s reaction time and increase the risk of an accident. Moreover, certain foreseeable and unforeseeable events can contribute to the unpredictability and the inherent risks and dangers associated with the Program.

Please read this document, including exhibits, carefully and, if you understand and consent to the conditions set forth herein, please initial, sign and date in the appropriate locations.

Every applicable section must be completed.

_____ (initial here)

IV. GENERAL CONDITIONS OF PARTICIPATION - ALL PARTICIPANTS

The University wants every Participant to enjoy their participation in the Program. The University takes the supervision of the Participants seriously. Therefore, it is important that each Participant understands in advance, the University’s Conditions of Participation in the Program. These rules exist for the protection of everyone.

The following Conditions of Participation shall apply to ALL Program Participants regardless of age or residency status. Failure to comply with any of the following shall lead to disciplinary action, including dismissal from the program. If a Participant is suspended or dismissed from the Program for violating any of the rules, neither the Participant nor the Guardian (if Participant is a Minor) will receive a refund of any monies paid to the University, but will be required to pay any monies still owed the University for participation in the Program.

By initialing below, you voluntarily consent to participate in the Program or consent to Minor’s participation in the Program and, in consideration of the University’s acceptance of your/Minor’s participation in the Program, you agree to be bound by the following Conditions of Participation:

1. The Participant will conform to the University Code of Student Conduct, as stated within the most current Point Park University Student Handbook, revised annually, while participating in the Program. Failure to conform to the University Code of Student Conduct is grounds for the suspension or termination of my participation in the Program. The most current Point Park University Student Handbook is available at: <http://www.pointpark.edu/StudentLife/OfficeofJudicialAffairs/StudentPlannerHandbook>
2. The Participant or Guardian (if Participant is a Minor) will execute this Conditions of Participation Agreement. Failure to execute the Conditions of Participation Agreement and all applicable Exhibits hereto may result in termination of the Participant from the Program.
3. The Participant, if residing on the University Campus during the Program, will execute a copy of and conform with the Rules for All Participants Residing on Point Park University Campus, which is attached hereto as Exhibit A. Failure to execute the Rules for All Participants Residing on Point Park University Campus will result in termination of the Participant from the Program.
4. The Participant or his/her Guardian (if Participant is a Minor) will execute the Conditions of Use and Consent Agreement - Information Technology, which is attached hereto as Exhibit B. Failure to execute the Conditions of Use and Consent Agreement - Information Technology will result in termination of the Participant from the Program.
5. The Participants or his/her Guardian (if Participant is a Minor) will execute the Emergency Contact, Medical Information, and Consent to Treat Form, which is attached hereto as Exhibit C. Failure to execute the Consent to Treat Form will result in termination of the Participant from the Program.
6. During the Program, the Participant's conduct will reflect upon the University and Participant will conduct himself/herself in a respectful, appropriate manner.
7. The Participant or the Participant's Guardian accepts financial responsibility for all applicable tuition, fees, charges, and personal expenses associated with this Program, and that payment, where applicable, is due prior to the start of the Program. If payment is not made prior Program start, the University may bar the Participant from participation in the Program.
8. The University reserves the right to cancel or modify the Program, or any part thereof, at any time and for any reason if deemed appropriate by the University. The University and any Program director, leader, or course instructor, (collectively referred to hereinafter as "University Representatives") may at any time unilaterally modify any aspect of the Program when, in the University and/or University Representative's sole discretion, the University and/or University Representative determines that such modification will enhance the value of the Program or the health and safety of the Program Participants. The University is not liable for any financial loss incurred by the Participant or Guardian which was caused by such cancellation or modification.
9. If any Participant participating in the Program elects to remain in Pittsburgh beyond the Program date and/or travel separately from the Program group, the Participant is required to notify the Program Leader, in writing, of the Participant's travel plans. Under no circumstances shall the University's receipt of a Participant's travel plans under this paragraph constitute implied or express consent by the University for such travel. The University assumes no liability whatsoever relating to or arising out of any travel undertaken by the Participant which is beyond the Program date or separately taken by the Participant from the Program group, and the Participant undertakes such travel solely on his/her own accord and at his/her own risk. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Minors must travel to Related Functions or other off campus activities via the transportation provided by the University. Participants over the age of 18 must inform the Program Leader of their intention to travel to a Related Function or other off campus activities via a method of transportation other than that provided by the University.
10. The Participant may not conduct himself/herself in a way that, in the sole discretion of the University and/or a University Representative disrupts the Program or brings the Program and/or University into disrepute.

11. While participating in the Program, the Participant is subject to all the rules, regulations and policies of the University. If the Participant violates any of the University's rules, regulations and policies, the University may suspend or terminate Participant's participation in the Program.
12. If the Participant may not undertake, or seek to undertake, any illegal activity. Specifically, if the Participant is charged with a crime during his/her participation in the Program, the University may suspend or terminate the Participant's participation in the Program.
13. The University or a University Representative may suspend or terminate the Participant's participation in the Program in the event that the Participant fails to comply with these General Conditions of Participation or other University policies and procedures, or if the University or a University Representative believes that the Participant's participation poses a danger to him/herself and/or his/her fellow Participants or others or threatens to impede orderly conduct of the Program.
14. Participants must attend only the classes they are assigned to and are not permitted to skip any class due to personal reasons or attend an unassigned dance class for any reason.
15. For 30 minutes before, during and for 30 minutes after Program classes, Participant's parents, legal guardians, relatives, friends or any other guests are not permitted to congregate outside studios or to interrupt any classes in any manner whatsoever. During these time periods, Participant's parents, legal guardians, relatives, friends or any other guests must wait in designated areas established by the University. If a University Representative determines, in his/her sole discretion, that a Participant's parents, legal guardians, relatives, friends or any other guests are not waiting outside the designated area or is disrupting a class in any way, the University may suspend or terminate the Participant's participation in the Program.
16. With the exception for properly prescribed drugs identified on Exhibit C, the use of alcohol and/or illegal drugs is strictly prohibited by all Program Participants regardless of age.
17. If the Participant voluntarily withdraws or departs, or if the Participant's participation in the Program is suspended and/or terminated by the University or a University Representative for any reason, the Participant or the Guardian is responsible for payment of all costs incurred by the Participant or on the Participant's behalf, and the Participant will be required to return home at the Participants own expense or at the Guardian's expense. If the Participant withdraws, departs, or is dismissed from the Program prior to its formal completion, neither the Participant nor the Guardian will receive a refund of any monies paid to the University, but will be required to pay any monies owed the University.
18. Participant/Guardian must inform the International Summer Dance Office if Participant/Minor is going to be tardy, absent or need to be dismissed early on any day of the Program. Notice must be given as soon as possible. The phone number for the International Summer Dance Office is: 412-392-3456.
19. Any suspension or termination under this Conditions of Participation Agreement is in addition to, and not in lieu of, any legal remedies which may be separately pursued by the University.
20. This Conditions of Participation Agreement, including all Exhibits, shall be construed in accordance with, and governed by, the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Any litigation regarding this Conditions of Participation Agreement, including all Exhibits, shall be brought in a court of competent jurisdiction in the County of Allegheny, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.
21. I also understand and acknowledge that because of the physical nature of dance training, physical contact is required and necessary between instructors and students during classes to insure proper instruction, technique and safety.

RESIDENT RULES

STUDENTS LIVING ON POINT PARK UNIVERSITY CAMPUS

Participants will be housed in a double or triple-occupancy room. Participants under the age of 18 (“Minors”) will be housed on a separate floor. Roommate requests are NOT guaranteed. Participants must be 16 years of age at the start of the program to live on campus. Participants residing on the University campus must abide by all residence life and security rules that are applicable to resident students generally.

Alcohol and Drugs are strictly prohibited on campus. With the exception for properly prescribed drugs identified on Exhibit C, possession of alcohol and/or drugs will result in immediate expulsion from the Program without refund of monies previously paid the University or without credit for any monies owed the University by the expelled Participant/Guardian. Smoking is also prohibited in and around University facilities.

The University reserves the right to conduct a search of Participants’ rooms without notice.

Participants will be given an identification card (“ID Card”) which will also be the Participant’s room key that will contain a 4 digit code to enter the building and your room. Participants must not give or lend their ID card to any other person for any reason and must inform a University Representative immediately if their ID card is lost or stolen. Participants will be charged a replacement fee for a replacement ID Card. After the Program, Participants may keep their ID card for a souvenir.

ALL STUDENTS AGES 16 AND 17 NO EXCEPTIONS - RULES FOR RESIDENT MINORS

Curfew: 10:00 p.m. - Resident Minors must be in their building by 10:00 p.m. and will not be permitted to leave the building after 10:00 p.m.

Resident Minors must be in their rooms:
Sunday through Friday: 11:05 p.m.
Saturday: 12:00 a.m. (midnight)

Lights-out:
Sunday through Friday: 12:00 a.m. (midnight)
Saturday at 1:00 a.m.

Visiting Floors and Rooms: Minors are not permitted to be on a floor, in a room or visit with anyone 18 or older as of the first day of the program, regardless of the sex of the Participant. Students are not permitted to be in a room of the opposite sex no matter what the age. Students of the opposite can socialize in common areas.

Leaving Campus Grounds and Signing-out - students must stay in groups of (3) three or more when leaving campus grounds. They must text or call their resident advisor as to where they are going, sign-out and sign back in together, in the same grouping of (3) three, at the security desk in their resident building, no matter what day or “time of day” when they are leaving campus.

On Campus Grounds – Students may travel on their own between the University buildings from 7am to 9pm. After 9 pm (at the start of twilight), if students are to remain outside on campus grounds, they must be in groups of 2 two or more for the last hour (9 pm to 10 pm.) Campus grounds include Conestoga Hall, Village Park, the Student Center, Academic/Thayer and Lawrence Hall.

If these rules be broken, Minor will be held responsible and will be dismissed from residence life.

Overnight or Weekend Stays:

Minors are not permitted to leave for a night or weekend or to stay with another Participant, under the age of 25, without parental consent. Minors will only be released from the University in the presence of a parent or legal guardian. A parent or legal guardian may submit via facsimile (412-392-3803) or mail, a fully executed “Consent Form for a Minor” to be released to any other guardian for a specified period of time, provided that this guardian is over the age of 25. A copy of the consent form is attached hereto. The guardian must show their driver’s license to security and sign the Minor out in the presence of a resident advisor. The guardian must inform the resident advisor of the destination and the time of return of the Minor.

ALL RESIDENT STUDENTS, REGARDLESS OF AGE, MUST SIGN BELOW.

Participants aged 18 years and older are not permitted to visit the room or floor of a Minor. Should these rules be broken, Participant aged 18 years and older will be held responsible and will be dismissed from residence life.

Visitation: Participants aged 18 and older may sign in a guest(s) only on Saturdays and each guest must leave the guest’s driver’s license or other valid form of picture identification at the security desk. A Participant’s guest is anyone who does not live in the residential building, including other Participants. A Participant’s guest must remain with the Participant at all times. All visitors must vacate the building by 12:00 a.m. (midnight). Anyone caught signing in a guest for someone else will be dismissed from residence life. Anyone caught with a guest after 12:00 a.m. (midnight) will be dismissed from residence life. Guests are not permitted to stay overnight.

Ladies, please select only (1) one option. If you do not dance on Pointe, please select the (Tap class) or the (voice, acting a week and music class). All males must attend Male Technique and Pas de Deux.

The classes listed below are for the 11:00 timeslot. If you do NOT want to dance on POINTE, then please select either Box B or C. If you are a male student, you must select Box D.

Again, everyone will have one week from the start of the program to change your option below. If you select Box C (tap) and decide after the first few classes that you would rather take Pointe classes, then stop in the office and ask to be changed. However, the last day for changes will be June 29.

Please return this form before the program begins ...

Please note that tap classes are available to everyone 2x a week in the afternoons. The 11:00 tap class is an extra tap class with mixed levels.

PLEASE CHECK (1)ONE BOX - This is for the 11 to 12 timeslot.

Box A - Pointe Class

Box B - Voice (Mon & Wed), Acting (Tues & Thurs), Music for Dancers (Fridays)

Box C - Extra Tap Classes All levels (5 days a week)

Box D - I am a MALE student and will attend Male Technique and Pas de Deux.

Again, everyone will take Tap, twice a week, in the afternoon. The Tap class above is an extra Tap class offered 5 days a week.
