BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN CRIMINAL JUSTICE

2024-2025 Degree Requirements

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

Upon successful completion of this program, a student will be able to:

1. Explain how professionals across multiple fields within the Criminal Justice system work to eliminate implicit, explicit, or institutional bias from their work.
2. Trace the history of law enforcement, the American court system, and corrections with special attention to their position within the larger field of Criminal Justice Studies.
3. Apply Criminal Theory to examine the nature and causes of crime, typologies, offenders, and victims.
4. Appraise the ethical behaviors of professionals within the context of case studies and simulations to support the development of appropriate ethical practices.
5. Evaluate the range of criminal justice procedures, techniques, and legal requirements in the criminal justice system. Evaluate the most effective application in utilizing accepted sources, methods, and techniques of the various elements to attain the criminal justice system goals.
