

Point Park University Sustainability Committee

Point Park is committed to fostering a culture of sustainability for the entire campus.

Because sustainability is an integral part of Point Park's strategic plan, it ties to numerous strategic initiatives that are at the heart of the institution's success. With this in mind, the Sustainability Committee is comprised of professionals, faculty and students from across the University.

Elmer Burger, University Architect
Bill Cameron, Operations
Andy Carter, International Student Services
Guy Catania, Human Resources
Chris Choncek, Institutional Research
Scott Deutsch, Environmental, Health & Safety
Bill Fabayanic, Bookstore
Sergio Flores, Conference & Event Services
Sarah George, Commuter Affairs – Student Affairs
Mariann Geyer, External Affairs
Dalton Good, Publications
Teresa Gregory, Professional in Residence, Sport, Arts and Entertainment Management Program
Jim Hardt, Business
Peter Kasich, Director of Operations, Physical Plant
John Krajnak, Procurement
John Kudlack, Professor, Natural Sciences and Engineering Technology (NSET)
Brandy Loechner, Procurement
Bridget Mancosh, SVP Finance & Operations
Christie Martz, Graphic Designer
Terra McBride, Social Media and Digital PR
Karen McIntyre, Academic & Student Affairs
Matt Opydyke, Assistant Professor, Natural Sciences and Engineering Technology (NSET)
Don Pastorius, Print Services
Keith Paylo, Dean of Students
Jan Pekar, Transportation
Ruth Rauluk, Procurement and Business Services
Dana Ruddock, Aramark
Mary Ellen Solomon, Marketing
Hillary Shepherd, Cigna
J W Tabacchi, Campus Life – Student Affairs
Natalie Taylor, Residential Co-Curricular Student Life
Brent Wilson, Library
Chasidy Zubler, Graduate Student
Chelsey Engel, SAVE Student Alliance for Vitalizing Earth

(as of 08-09-11)