Will the Pirates Win the World Series?

What's the winning lottery number? How can I save money on my textbooks? Does the library have a microwave I can borrow? What came first, the chicken or the egg, or the egg or the chicken? How can I get personalized assistance for my research? Find the answers to some of these questions in this edition of the Library Newsletter.

Microwave

WHAT'S THIS? A new TV in the Library?

No, silly. TVs don't smell like burnt popcorn. Ask and ye shall receive. Your library now has a microwave! Located at the Breaking Point Coffee Bar.

10th Annual Library Halloween Costume Contest

Dress up * Eat candy * Win prizes * Entertain library staff * Be famous

Halloween is just around the corner and that means that it's time to enter the Library's 10th Annual Halloween Costume Contest! Start planning your creative costume now and visit the Library on Thursday, October 31st wearing your creepiest or cleverest costume. We'll give you some candy and take your picture. All participants' photos will be on display in the Library and will be voted on by the student body and the library staff. Enter as an individual or as a group and win a prize for having the best costume!

We're dying to see what you'll wear! Muhahahaha!

How to Save Money on Textbooks

Library Book Scanner

Want to save money on textbooks? The library has a number of textbooks that can be checked out for use in the library. With the book scanner you can create beautiful PDFs of your very own to transfer to your USB, send to your Point Park email, Google Drive—even transfer to your Smartphone. And it's free.

And don't forget E-ZBorrow. You can now borrow books from E-ZBorrow and keep them for three months! Search over fifty college and university libraries for books that are not in Point Park Library's collection. Just log in from the library homepage with the barcode number on the back lower portion of your Point Park ID.
