

Petersen Events Center – Plan Your Visit FAQ

What are my parking options?

All surrounding parking facilities are operated solely by the Pitt Parking Office. The nearest parking option is the OC Parking Lot, located on Allequippa Street. An alternative parking option is the Soldiers & Sailors Garage located on Fifth Avenue. Accessible/Handicapped parking is available at the Presbyterian Hospital garage. Please note that the venue can never guarantee availability.

How much does it cost to park?

There will be a $15 parking fee for Point Park University's commencement ceremony.

Where can I be dropped off?

The easiest drop-off point is located directly adjacent to the Panthers Ticket Office on Terrace Street.

Where is the main entrance located?

There are two main entrances into the Petersen Events Center. The first, and most accessible is the main Lobby, located on Terrace Street. Once inside the building, you will take the elevator or escalator to the Concourse Level. If utilizing the elevator, you will go through a security checkpoint on the Lobby level. If utilizing the escalators, you will exit the building on the Concourse Level and re-enter on the same level, through the Concourse A entrance.

Where is the accessible entrance located?

The Petersen Events Center has accessible entrances located on the Lobby level and the Concourse level.

Is outside food & beverage permitted?

Outside food & beverage is not allowed inside the facility, unless medically necessary.

Am I allowed to bring a bag/purse inside?

Only clear bags 12"x12"x6" will be permitted. Any bag that is not clear must be less than 4.5"x6.5".
