

Examination for course credit or evaluation of applied knowledge learning

An examination for course credit may be offered by the department in which the course is offered whenever no CLEP examination is available. Credit for applied knowledge learning may be granted to individuals who submit evidence of learning equivalent to University level courses. Considered evidence may be portfolios, summaries of learning experiences, letters from supervisors and/or other materials. The student must have completed a minimum of six credits at Point Park before an evaluation for applied knowledge learning can be processed. These credits do NOT fulfill the University residency requirement. The fee for the examination or evaluation is $75 with an additional fee of $100 per credit granted. Students interested in this option must see the department official of the department that the course is offered in to begin the process.

Agreement Terms

READ CAREFULLY: When you register as a student at Point Park University, you are agreeing to pay all charges on your tuition and fee account when due. You also acknowledge that failure to make a required payment by the stated deadline can result in late payment charges, inability to register for a future term, and/or withholding of a transcript and/or diploma. Further, this debt could be considered an educational loan. By signing this document "under seal," you are aware that collection activities may continue for up to 20 years. This is a nondischargeable debt. In the event of collection procedures or a suit to collect unpaid balances on the student's account, the student will be charged all of the University's costs for collections, including legal fees, not to exceed 50 percent of the entire outstanding balance.
