OUR MISSION ...

Is to engage current and future leaders in business, government and nonprofit sectors to work together with communities, and to become agents of change who inspire others and foster prosperity in diverse community settings.

LEARNING INSIDE AND OUTSIDE THE CLASSROOM

In the community engagement minors, students learn through courses that draw from theoretical frameworks and experiential methods; this includes community-based learning and research with an emphasis on collaboration with partners in the Pittsburgh region.

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT AND SOCIAL CHANGE MINOR

- Combine classroom learning in social change with meaningful community work.
- Participate in project-based field work with opportunities for self-reflection.
- Complete a practicum project in the community.
- Conclude the program prepared for outreach and partnership work in civic, business and community organizations.

WOMEN'S AND GENDER STUDIES MINOR

- In this interdisciplinary program, use critical reading skills to analyze and dissect arguments in the field of women's and gender studies.
- Formulate and defend positions by gathering supporting evidence and presenting arguments.
- Conclude the program prepared to put theoretical knowledge into action based on social impact work and field experience completed.
