Tuition Scholarship

Type: Summer

Curriculum: The Pre-Professional Dance Intensive (PDI) (July 9-22) for ages 13-17 offers two weeks of intense dancing and collaboration to develop your artistic voice. Dancers participate in 20+ classes per week including African dance forms, ballet, composition, dance film, jazz, modern, and repertory. PDI allows dancers to build relationships while having the freedom to grow and create independently. Dancers attend and discuss performance an international roster of dance companies. Dancers will their technique, artistry, confidence, and immerse themselves in the creative process through repertory and collaborative classes. Dancers will present repertory, creative projects, and class excerpts in a full-length performance for friends, family, and the ADF community.

The Summer Dance Intensive (SDI) (June 8–July 8) for ages 18+ offers four weeks of intense dancing to help define your career and transform your artistry. Dancers choose three core classes in a range of forms, techniques, and cultural traditions. They also participate in master classes, drop-in classes, showings, and discussions that offer students further engagement with their craft and community. Dancers collaborate with innovative choreographers, produce and choreograph performances at ADF with fellow students, and have the opportunity to audition for repertory works. Dancers see multiple performances by companies and artists each week and build enduring relationships with ADF faculty and dancers from around the world.
