PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

Upon successful completion of this program, a student will be able to:

1. Demonstrate the achievement of professional competence, including significant technical mastery and conceptual understanding of the medium and its expressive potential.
2. Defend analyses and critiques of dance and effectively communicate complex dance ideas, concepts, and requirements to professionals and laypersons.
3. Place dance in historical, cultural, and stylistic contexts; analyze and critically evaluate dance works; and apply knowledge of the body and kinesiology in theory and practice.
4. Demonstrate a fundamental knowledge of choreographic practices, and apply basic teaching skills.
5. Recognize the range of opportunities for professional work in dance, develop a personal career plan, and continue artistic and intellectual development.
