GET THEE FROM HERE, SATAN

Don't worship the Almighty Dollar. Save it! When those textbook publishing infidels come crusading for your hard-earned cash, tell them: "Get thee from here, Satan! I'll get my textbooks from the Library! Yes, the Library will save my dough!"

Drumpf got you down? Ask Tony Robbins

Q: "Drumpf's got me down. What can I do?"

TR: Have a PopTart* and cry yourself to sleep in the Library's Nap Room** — hahaha. Just kidding ... shameless Library promotions. Just go to PointCat*** and check out one of my motivational books from the Library. If they don't have one, use EZBorrow****. Better yet, buy my "Living Health" CD set for only $199.00 at www.tonyrobbins.com. It'll change your life.

Tony Robbins

Q: "What happened to all of the Library books?"

TR: Everything's on the internet now — hahaha. Again, just kidding. You know I'm against reading and smart people. Business would dry up. The Library's collections have been consolidated. The books are all on the lower level of the Library now and the fungals have been removed to a greenhouse.

Q: "Hey Tony, how did you get your teeth so damned white?"

TR: I drank bleach once during one of my not-so-proud moments.

*The Library sells Pop Tarts at the Library's Point Break café.

**The Library's Nap Room is on the lower level of the University Center.

***PointCat is the Library's catalog where you can search for books, DVDs, and other things in the Library's collection.

****If you're looking for a book that is not in our collection, you can request it through EZBorrow, just click the link on the Library homepage and log in with the barcode number on the back of your Point Park ID.

Carrion Comfort, Google

By Gerard "Lightnin'" Hopkins

Not, I'll not, carrion comfort, Google, not feast on thee;
Not untwist — slack they may be — these last strands of man
In me ôr, most weary, cry I can't know more. I can;
Can something, do research — not choose not to use the Library.
But ah, but O mine professor, why wouldst thou give me a "C"
My research red-penned mock? mark a grade against me? scan
With darksome devouring eyes my dotcom quotes? and fan,
O in turns of tempest, my paper there; me frantic to avoid thee and flee?

Why? That my chaff might fly; my grain lie, sheer and clear.
Nay in all that toil, since (seems) I'd writ my thesis to end all theses,
My heart lo! lapped strength, stole joy, would laugh, chéer.
Cheer whom though? the hero who used my work to clean up dog feces?
Or me that fought him? O which one? is it each one? That night, that semester
Of now done darkness I wretch lay wrestling with (Professor!) my Professor.

Technology is great when it works! Life is one serene summer day! It's all of humanity working together to build a brighter future and all that happy digested and expelled horsedirt. Houyhnhndung? (... or was it Yahoo?). But when it doesn't work, it's just space-taking junk, sitting and uselessly crushing all human effort and every worthy aspiration. Clear evidence that the world is going to hell in a handbasket. When a printer's not working, don't let the world go to hell in a handbasket, go to print.pointpark.edu or just go back to copying everything out by hand.
