

PITTSBURGH PLAYHOUSE

POINT PARK UNIVERSITY

New Pittsburgh Playhouse: By the Numbers

$60 million

Cost to build and furnish

90,411

Square footage of new construction

76,276

Square footage of four existing buildings

91

Total rooms in new building

29

Number of subcontractors that worked on the project

17

Total number of trade unions represented on the project

253

Total number of workers on the project

4,000

Peak number of weekly labor hours during construction

28

Months for construction

1 million-plus

Feet of wire used throughout the building

250,000

Feet of electrical conduit used throughout the building

30,000

Feet of galvanized aircraft cable used for stage rigging

780

Approximate amount of American-made steel, in tons, used on the construction project

700

Approximate total number of loose theatrical lighting fixtures in all three theaters

685

Total number of individual pieces in the three building facades that were restored and reused as part of the Playhouse – The Royal, 279; Goettman, 169; Palace, 237

240

Yards of fabric used to fabricate the stage curtain in the main theater

1903

Year the stained glass ceiling in the Stock Exchange Building was made

1,700

Approximate hours of labor put into the restoration of the stained glass ceiling